

K-LOVE is the only radio station that I listen. I cannot begin to explain the great benefits that this station has provided me. It is uplifting and has helped me through very difficult times. I believe that K-LOVE also positively affects my greater community in that it provides messages of hope and good advice, whereas other stations are unable to provide these things. It has been a complete encouragement to me and I hope that it will continue to be aired here in Hawaii.